Course overview

Personnel Economics differs from conventional Labor Economics in that it focuses on what happens inside firms and organizations. It deals with employment contracts, wage structures, employer-employee interactions and other issues related to the workplace. A central area of research is concerned with how to structure jobs and incentives inside firms to achieve desirable outcomes for employers as well as employees. This course will present and discuss some of the key topics in Personnel Economics research and the latest developments therein. In addition, the course will also cover selected topics in Labor Economics related to the Personnel Economics literature.
Topics

Incentives:
- Moral hazard; the principal agent problem
- Subjective measurement
- Tournaments
- Intrinsic and extrinsic rewards, reciprocity, fairness
- Equity, stock options
- Performance measurement; distortions
- Relative performance evaluation
